MERVIS DIAMOND IMPORTERS CONNECTS WITH LOCAL AUCTION SITE
BID4ASSETS.COM TO SELL DESIGNER JEWELRY ONLINE

SILVER SPRING, MD., April 4, 2007 – Bid4Assets, Inc. and Mervis Diamond Importers today announced an exclusive partnership to bring showroom quality, designer jewelry to a national audience. Mervis, Washington’s premier diamond jeweler will sell diamond earrings, pendants and necklaces from last season at reduced prices online as they make room for next season’s jewelry in their showrooms. The collection is available on www.bid4assets.com/mervis.

“This is a promising new local partnership to bring an assortment of superior quality jewelry to Bid4Assets’ upscale buyers across the country. Our goal is to reach this new audience and take our locally built reputation and the Mervis name to a national audience,” said company owner Ronnie Mervis.

Jeff Weingrad, president and CEO of Bid4Assets added, “Mervis is the first name in diamonds in the Washington area. Teaming up with such a prestigious and respected leader in the jewelry industry will allow us to deliver their unique collection to our growing buyer base.”

Bid4Assets is the online destination for high-value property like jewelry, collectibles and real estate. Today’s announcement follows related initiatives in recent months by Bid4Assets to carve out a position in the market for high-end luxury goods, which compliment the niche marketplace.
