Government-Forfeited Joe Rodeo Masterpiece Wristwatch with 24 Carats of Diamonds is Up for Auction Online

With a starting bid of just $10,000, this diamond wristwatch is for sale by the Federal government

SILVER SPRING, Md., March 6, 2008 – Bid4Assets, Inc., a leading online auction site for forfeited, surplus and tax-defaulted property from federal, state and local government and private industry, today announced that it will auction a Joe Rodeo Masterpiece wristwatch and bracelet set with 24 carats of diamonds forfeited to the U.S. Marshals Service. The wristwatch is currently in preview on the Bid4Assets Web site at www.bid4assets.com/usms. Online bidding begins March 10-12, 2008.

The minimum bid for the watch starts at $10,000. The U.S. Marshals require that bidders submit a pre-bid deposit of $1,000 prior to placing a bid. The pre-bid deposit submission is simple and can be completed on the auction listing page on the Bid4Assets Web site. See Web site for details.

Specifications, photos, appraisal details and other information are currently available online at <http://www.bid4assets.com/usms>. Interested buyers can contact Bid4Assets with any questions by sending an email to service@bid4assets.com. For those individuals who are unable to access the Internet, they can contact Bid4Assets toll-free at 1-877-4ASSETS to request an off-line bid form.

“We have been helping the United States Marshals Service reach buyers across the country, generating millions of dollars used to further law enforcement initiatives,” said Jenny Lynch, spokeswoman for Bid4Assets. “The Internet allows interested buyers to find all of the information they need on a property to make a purchasing decision online.”

Bid4Assets has been conducting auctions for the U.S. Marshals since December 1999 to include residential and commercial real estate, luxury automobiles, collector cars, aircraft, boats, jewelry, timeshares, sports memorabilia and financial instruments.
