Tax Foreclosed Property Auction
Internet Bidding

I. PROPERTY

1. The Auction of tax-foreclosed real property (the “Auction”) is being held in compliance with the Michigan General Property Tax Act, MCL 211.1 et seq., as amended, applicable court decisions and these Terms and Conditions of Sale. The property for sale was foreclosed by the Wayne County Treasurer (the “Treasurer”) for non-payment of delinquent real property taxes pursuant to a Judgment of Foreclosure entered by the Wayne County Circuit Court, Wayne County Circuit Court Case No. 11-007010-CH. Properties may be offered for sale individually or as a group (“Bundled Properties”).
2. The property is subject to any liens, easements, building or use restrictions, governmental interests, or special assessments not extinguished pursuant to MCL 211.78k, or other applicable law, and is also subject to taxes levied in the same calendar year as the year of the sale and taxes not yet due and payable. The Treasurer makes no warranty regarding the existence of such liens or encumbrances. Neither the Treasurer nor the County of Wayne, its departments, boards, commissions, officers, employees, agents, and its successors and assigns, (herein collectively referred to as the “County”) guarantee the usability or access to any of the offered property.
3. In accordance with state law, the State of Michigan, a local governmental unit, or the County may purchase property prior to the Auction. Any such purchased property will be removed from the Auction. The property listing <http://www.bid4assets.com/Wayne> will be updated to reflect that the property is no longer for sale.
4. The legal description and parcel identification number designate the property offered for sale. The street address is based upon information provided to the Treasurer by local tax jurisdictions and may not correspond to the actual legal description or parcel identification number.
5. The sale of tax-foreclosed property is mandated by Michigan law and should not, in any way, be equated to real estate sales by licensed salespersons, brokers, or real estate agents.
6. The Treasurer reserves the right to remove any property from the Auction.

II. CONDITIONS AND DISCLOSURES

1. The property is offered for sale “as-is” and “where is”.
2. The Winning Bidder, its agents, grantees, successors and assigns, if any (herein collectively referred to as the “Winning Bidder”), is responsible for all property taxes for 2012, including, but not limited to, state education taxes, Summer and Winter taxes billed in 2012, and/or special assessments due.
3. The Winning Bidder releases the Treasurer and the County from all liability whatsoever arising from any condition of the property, whether now known or subsequently discovered, including, but not limited to, all claims based on environmental contamination of the property, if any. The Winning Bidder agrees not to sue the Treasurer or the County, for any claim, whether legal or equitable, in any manner. The Winning Bidder also releases, waives, and discharges the Treasurer and the County from any and all liability, arising in any manner in connection with, or relating in any way to, the sale of property from the Auction.
4. Some property may be landlocked with no ingress or egress or as provided by abutting owners. Winning bidder must make arrangements with any abutting owner to create ingress and egress to the property. The Treasurer and the County make no representation or claim as to fitness for purpose including any right of ingress/egress, conditions, covenants or restrictions. There are no warranties, either expressed or implied, regarding any property.
5. In addition to any liens and encumbrances not canceled pursuant to the Foreclosure Judgment, the property may be subject to liens and/or encumbrances incurred after the entry of the Foreclosure Judgment. It is the responsibility of the Winning Bidder to ascertain if the property is subject to, or may be subject to, any such liens or encumbrances. The Treasurer makes no warranty regarding the existence of such liens or encumbrances.
6. The Treasurer assumes no liability for any lien, encumbrance, or easement, recorded or not recorded which was not cancelled by the Foreclosure Judgment of the property under MCL 211.78k. It is the responsibility of the bidder to research the existence of any liens or encumbrances not canceled by the Foreclosure Judgment or other applicable law. Further, it is the responsibility of the bidder to research the use of the land for its intended purpose and to determine if it will be suitable for the purposes for which it is being purchased. The Treasurer and the County are not in any way responsible for the cost of any research, fees, costs, or other expenses related to the research.
7. The Winning Bidder agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the Treasurer and the County, from any and all claims, demands, judgments, and expenses, including attorney fees, for any and all loss, damage, injury, or death related to the property.
8. The property is subject to any applicable state, county and local zoning and building ordinances.
9. The property may or may not be occupied at the time of sale. Occupied structures should not be entered without the occupant’s permission.

10. The Winning Bidder does not acquire title and legal title is not conveyed at the time of delivery of the purchase price. Title is conveyed only upon the execution and delivery of the quit claim deed for the property. Notwithstanding, upon payment of the full purchase price, the Winning Bidder assumes the full risk of loss and shall be solely responsible for protecting its interest in the property, including and not limited to, obtaining insurance and contacting local units of government to prevent possible demolition of structures situated on parcels.
11. The property may be subject to flooding. Any new construction or reconstruction should conform to local, county, and state regulations. Also, any filling, dredging, or other permanent construction below the ordinary high-water mark of the water body involved, or earth change may be subject to restrictions under state law. The property may also be subject to wetlands protections under Part 303 of the Natural Resources and Environmental Protection Act, 1994 PA 451, as amended (NREPA).
12. The Winning Bidder accepts the property in its present “as is” condition, and releases the Treasurer and County from all liability whatsoever arising from any condition of the premises, whether now known or subsequently discovered, including but not limited to all claims based on environmental contamination of the premises. A person who acquires property that is contaminated as a result of of a hazardous substance(s) may become liable for all costs of cleaning up the property and any other property impacted by the release(s), pursuant to NREPA or other state or federal laws. Liability may be imposed upon the person acquiring the property even in the absence of any personal responsibility for, or knowledge of, the release. Protection from such liability may be obtained by conducting a Baseline Environmental Assessment (BEA) as provided for under section 20126(1)(c) of NREPA.
13. Pursuant to NREPA, the person(s) responsible for an activity causing a release at the property is obligated to pursue response activities at the property. Furthermore, NREPA requires that a person who has knowledge that their property is contaminated provide a written notice to the successful bidder or other person to whom the property is transferred which discloses the general nature and extent of the release. Additional disclosure obligations may also apply at the time the property, or an interest in the property, is transferred.
14. It is recommended that a person who is interested in purchasing a parcel, contact an attorney and/or an environmental consultant for advice prior to the acquisition of the property.
15. The Winning Bidder expressly waives any and all claims for damages against the Treasurer and the County, of any kind, including and not limited to, interest, attorney fees, costs or other expenses.

VI. DEED CONVEYANCE

1. A separate quit claim deed will be issued for each property purchased. Unless the sale is canceled by the Treasurer, or unless otherwise ordered by a court. A quit claim deed will be executed by the Treasurer and delivered to the Wayne County Register of Deeds for recording within 30 days of the close of the Auction. The recorded quit claim deed will be mailed only to the person and address indicated in the application for deed.
2. The quit claim deed conveys only title as vested in the Treasurer pursuant to the Foreclosure Judgment.
3. The quit claim deed shall contain a “declaration of condition subsequent” imposing the following restrictions on the sale of the property, which restrictions shall run with the land for a period of two (2) years following the date of the deed and are binding on the Purchasers and subsequent owners:
  - 1) the Purchaser or subsequent owner shall keep current the taxes on the property for the two tax years following the date of the deed conveyed by the Treasurer; and
  - 2) the Purchaser or subsequent owner shall either demolish the property within six months or maintain and secure the property for two years following the date of the deed in accordance with local building, health and public safety ordinances. The quit claim deed shall provide that failure of the Purchaser or subsequent owner to comply with either of the aforementioned restrictions, or to cure the default within 30 days of written notice, may result in a reversion of the title and/or possession of the property to the city or township where the property is located, or the Treasurer.
4. A Property Transfer Affidavit will be filed by the Treasurer with the city/township in which the property is located when the quit claim deed is issued.
5. The Treasurer reserves the right to cancel any sale, at any time, prior to the issuance of the deed. Upon cancellation of a sale by the Treasurer or by order of the Court, the Winning Bidder shall only be entitled to a refund of the purchase price.
6. Failure to provide deed registration information to the Treasurer shall result in the property being deeded in the name of the bidder.
