Due Diligence

Bidders are urged to perform property research and due diligence prior to bid submittal. A bid is an irrevocable offer to purchase property and once made, is a binding contract. The Bidder is solely responsible to determine the extent, if any, to which the property they are bidding on will or may be subject to liens. Prospective bidders are urged to examine the title, location and desirability of the properties available to their own satisfaction prior to the sale. The County Treasurer makes no warranty, either expressed or implied, to the title, the usability, location, property lines or topography of the properties listed. Bidders are further advised that certain properties may be subject to easements or use restrictions. Recorded easements are not extinguished by a tax sale. The property address where listed is not from a verified source, but the Treasurer is required to use it. Therefore, the address may, or may not be correct.

There may be additional unknown liens.
